NEW YORK, Oct. 9 (AP)—A court action through the restricted area over the plane crash last year enroute to Europe, presumably to be used in ousting a communist-inspired takeover of Portuguese colonies in Africa, a federal court has been told.

The border was one of seven places that in various places which the U.S. government has charged that these men -- one a French count and another a former royal air force pilot -- conspired to export illegally to Portugal without export licenses or the permission of the U.S. State Department.

The court story of the bordering area in fourth week tomorrow with the all.

AND ANOTHER A FORMER ROYAL AIR FORCE PILOT -- CONSPIRED TO EXPORT ILLICITLY TO PORTUGAL BETWEEN MAY AND SEPTEMBER 1965.

THE GOVERNMENT CONTENDS THE AIRCRAFT WERE FLOWN WITHOUT EXPORT LICENSES OR THE PERMISSION OF THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT.

THE COURT STORY OF THE BORDERING AREA IN FOURTH WEEK TOMORROW WITH THE ALLIANCE INVOLVEMENT OF THE U.S. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA) YET TO BE CONFIRMED. U.S. ATTORNEYS HAVE RESTED THEIR CASE. LISTENING TO THE STORY IN U.S. DISTRICT COURT IS A JURY OF 10 MEN AND TWO WOMEN.

ON TRIAL WAS JOHN R. HAWKE, 40, A FORMER AIR PILOT LIVING IN FORT LAUDERDALE, FLA., AND ROBERT M. BOARD, 40, A FRENCH COUNT AND BUSINESSMAN.

ORCHESTRY M. BOARD, 40, THE THIRD IN ORDER INDICTMENT, FLED THE COUNTRY AND IS BELIEVED TO BE IN GUYANA, WEST INDIES. BOARD, A NATIVE OF AUSTRALIA AND A NATURALIZED U.S. CITIZEN, FORMERLY LIVED IN TUCSON, ARIZ.

THE GOVERNMENT CLAIMS HE HONORARILY COORDINATED CONTRACTS BETWEEN TWO AMERICAN COMPANIES BASED IN TUCSON, AND A SWISS COMPANY, LUSAR S.A., FOR THE PURCHASE OF 20 AIRCRAFT DESTINED FOR PORTUGAL.
